Cancellation Policy

In the event of cancellation of sponsorship and/or exhibition booth(s), please note that unless that particular area of sponsorship or exhibition is resold, the Local Organizing Committee reserves the right to retain all monies received. If the balance of payment is not received by the due date, the allocated sponsorship or exhibition booth(s) will be cancelled. Any booth or sponsorship package cancelled after 15 January 2026 will not be refunded; thus 100% forfeited.

Registration

Sponsors and exhibitors are required to officially register for the Congress, even where a complimentary ticket may be offered. Please refer to the relevant sponsorship or exhibition packages for registration entitlements.

Liability

The Exhibitor agrees that neither HKAOMS, the Local Organizing Committee, nor any of their officers, directors, agents and employees, shall be held liable for any damage, loss, harm or injury to the person or property of the exhibitor or any of its officers, directors, agents or employees, resulting from theft, accident or any other cause. Exhibitors and participants are advised to make their own arrangement for personal insurance.

Force Majeure

If during the term of this agreement force majeure (including but not limited to war, riots, earthquakes, natural disasters, etc.) causes that some or all of the terms of this agreement cannot be fulfilled, the defaulting party will not be liable for breach of contract. Both parties are obliged to continue to perform the remaining terms of this agreement that are not affected. If the purpose of this agreement can no longer be carried out due to force majeure, this agreement is automatically terminated and both parties bear their own losses. Each party shall immediately notify the other party of the occurrence of force majeure, and shall, within 14 days, present to the other party a certified written statement issued by notary office describing the event of force majeure time. Otherwise, the party claiming force majeure cannot delay or avoid performance or non-performance under the agreement on the grounds of force majeure. The party affected by force majeure shall take reasonable actions to mitigate the damages.

Disclaimer

The Local Organizing Committee of ACOMS 2026 reserves the right to change the program, speakers and/or venue without prior notice.
